School Holiday Fun at the Port MacDonnell Community Complex

Children of all ages enjoyed hanging out at the Port MacDonnell Community Complex during these school holidays, with many different events and activities taking place over the course of the two-week break.

As well as the Story time Easter party, activities including Easter biscuit decorating, succulent making, board game and pencil pot making and macramé were available at the Complex for children to enjoy.

Ruby and Dane enjoyed making a succulent as part of the PMCC holiday activities.

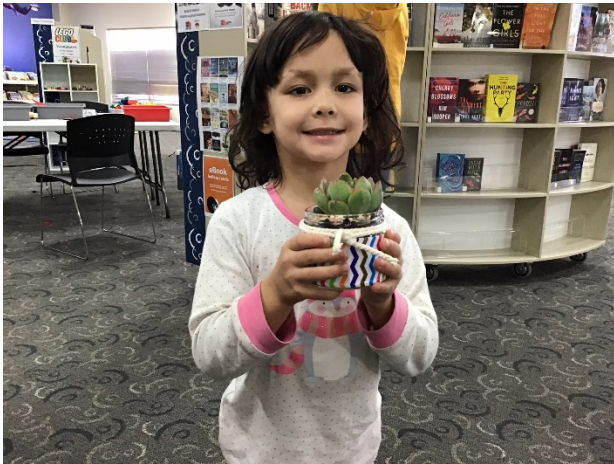

Madison with the biscuits she decorated during the Easter craft session.
